Observing, Reflecting and Containing: The Tavistock Clinic Approach to Clinical Interventions From Infancy Through Adulthood

Presented by Ricky Emanuel and Louise Emanuel (PhD), Child, Adolescent and Adult Psychotherapists and faculty members, the Tavistock Clinic, London, UK

Saturday, April 12, 2014
8:30 AM to 4:30 PM
Hilton Garden Inn, 600 S Colorado Blvd, Denver 80246

Registration Fees:
$140 - Early Bird Special for Professionals (paid by March 15)
$125 - Early Bird Special for Students (paid by March 15)
$160 - Professionals (paid after March 15)
$ 60 - Students/Interns with Student ID (paid after March 15)

To register, fill out the form below and mail or email it to:
Maria Droste Counseling Center, Attn: The Institute
1355 S. Colorado Blvd., Suite C-100
Denver, CO 80222-3305
Institute@MariaDroste.org
Or visit www.MariaDroste.org/Events for online registration.

Schedule
8:30 - 8:55 Registration
8:55 - 9:00 Introduction to Presenters
9:00 - 10:30 Presentation by Louise Emanuel, PhD. Holding on; being held; letting go: The relevance of Bion’s thinking for psychoanalytic work with parents, infants and children under five
10:30 - 10:45 Break
10:45 - 12:15 Clinical Presentation and Reflective Supervision
12:15 - 1:15 Lunch (on your own)
1:15 - 2:45 Presentation by Ricky Emanuel. A-Void: An exploration of defences against sensing nothingness
2:45 - 3:00 Break
3:00 - 4:00 Break Out Groups
4:00 - 4:30 Plenary and Closing

For more information regarding the presentations, visit www.MariaDroste.org/Institute or call 303-756-9052 x176.